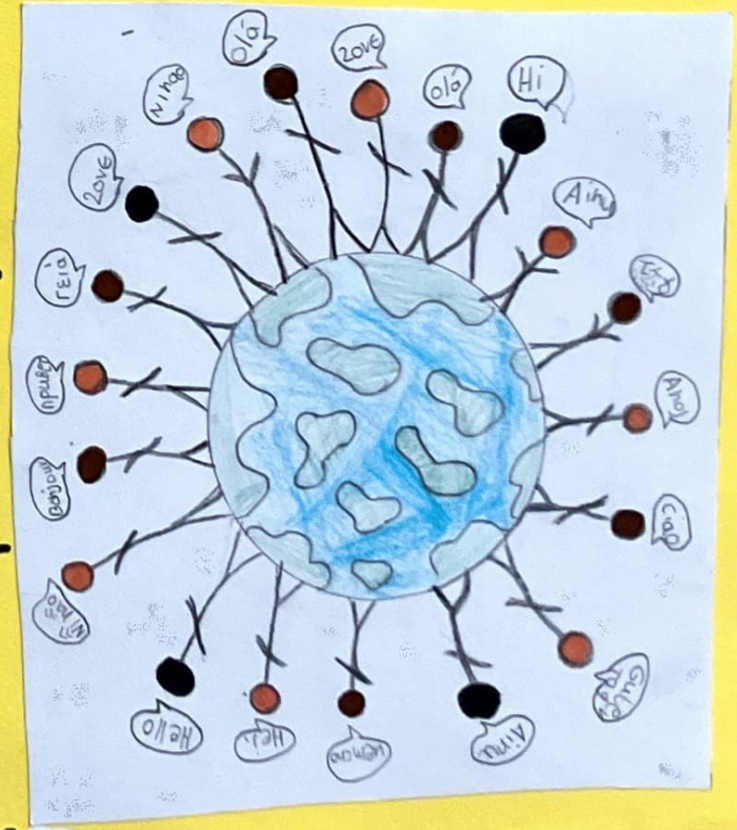
European Day of Languages 2025

Switzerland

Lithuania

The European Day of Languages started with the success of the European Year of Languages in 2001, a joint initiative of the council of European Union to promote Europe's linguistic diversity. Following this sucsesful campgain, the Council of Europe declared September 26th as the annual European day of languages to continue raising awareness aboul the importunce of language learning and to foster plurilnguaism and itercultural undersanding.



Sweden

Languages open hedts and mind

Greece

Germany